The new Media: more than 17 Millions contacts with the official web site of the Rally d'Italia Sardegna.

It increase over and over, without stopping: the official site of the Rally d'Italia Sardegna (www.rallyitalia-sardegna.com) is so relevant in the Italian on line world, to allow to the Rally to be present on Wikipedia too.

Since 17th Dec. 2005 – first on line day – to the last 17th April, 17.756.279 contacts have been registered with an average of 21.000 daily contacts.

The most part of the aforementioned contacts are realized during the month of May, before and during the race: in May 2006 the site has registered 4.153.261 contacts, in May 2007 they were 5.358.401.

On the web site all the Rally d'Italia Sardegna is present: general maps of the three days, particular maps of any single Stage realized on a special map-making of the Touring Club Italiano; from the Spectator's guide, with all the useful suggestions to find out all the most beautiful viewing points and roads to reach them, to the official docs for media and Competitors. It is like a little "enciclopedia" that allows to everybody to get all the needed info on RIS. On the site you can also find large areas dedicated to the partners with accurate description of their activity and relationship with the Event.
